The Global Law and Governance (GLG) Summer School

The Global Law and Governance (GLG) Summer School is an initiative of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) located next to the sea in Sounion Bay, 64 km from the center of Athens, Greece. The GLG Summer School offers a stimulating one-week intensive summer program (July 25–29) with a research-led, interdisciplinary approach to law, public policy and economics

Prestigious scholars from all over the world present their cutting edge research on key themes impacting European and International integration, while students are invited to listen, interact and brainstorm with their instructors, making the GLG Summer School a truly innovative and engaging learning experience.

Students will be awarded the Certificate of Attendance, provided that they fully attend and actively participate in classes, as well as complete all assignments.

ECTS Diploma Supplements are also available upon request.
